

Donated to the Susan Bulkeley Butler Women's Archives

Received 2/28/2013

Kristena LaMar Papers

Accession Number: 20130228

This collection contains seven scrapbooks documenting education and career of Kristena LaMar, who received a bachelor's degree from Purdue in 1970 served nearly forty years as an attorney and judge in Portland, Oregon. The scrapbooks contain personal and professional correspondence, clippings, photographs, test scores and reports cards, as well as ribbons, awards, and certificates. The collection also contains articles written by LaMar and artifacts such as Purdue and the University of Michigan pennants and other felt objects.