

Accession # 20150619.1

Collection title and dates: Betty Nelson papers, addition 3

Box	Subdivision (if applicable)/Item Type	Item Description
1	File folders containing speeches, correspondence, memorabilia	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Community Foundation of Greater Lafayette “Leading Philanthropy, Enriching Lives” Summer 2015 edition• Folder, “Three Deans’ Photos for Portraits + Misc. Photos”• Mailing Envelope, “Salute to Women Pictures 3/6/01”• AARP folder containing multiple letters detailing individuals’ accounts of personal interactions with Barbara Cook for the Mortar Board, many passages highlighted – Inside of folder labeled “Barb. Cook comments for MB”• Folder labeled, “Memorabilia MBS + BIC” containing:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Purdue Perspective Article by editor Julia Rosa acknowledging deans Stone and Cook○ E-mail from Tony Hawkins to Barb Cook on dedication of “When Dreams Dance” sculpture○ Multiple pictures of Cook and related individuals○ Western Union Telegram envelope○ Telegraph dated 1/17/65 inviting Beverley Stone to be “director of halls chemistry department”○ Several newspaper clippings and photocopies of articles from different newspapers○ Envelope containing B. Stone Retirement Programs• Manila envelope labeled “Memorabilia for Archives Speech Drafts, etc.,” empty• File folder<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Letter headed “Mary Elizabeth Skinner, August 14, 1993” regarding Mary Lib’s passing, includes editing markings○ PURA envelope containing letter draft written on 8” x 5” note card, dated 3/23/02○ Handwritten speech notes detailing the history of the Salvation Army and announcement of a new building whose funding had been recently achieved—sticky note attached labeled “SAMMIE”• File folder containing typed speech on the life and influence of Helen Blanch Schleman, 6-18-04• File folder containing a typed speech with two additional edited and annotated copies for Helen Schleman’s memorial• File folder containing:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Three short recollections entitled “Three Iron Key Memories By Barbara I. Cook”

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Handwritten speech at the National Association of Women Deans, Administrators, and Counselors ○ Handwritten speech entitled, “Marguerite Beverley Stone: A Life Well Spent” ○ Speech printed on 5x8 note cards, in honor of Barbara Elsbury ○ Typed speech, “A Tribute to Barbara Elsbury” ○ Typed speech, Students: The Future!” ○ Typed speech, “The Student Journey” by Barbara I. Cook ○ Photograph scanned from quarterly publication depicting Dean Dorothy Stratton ○ Handwritten speech, heavily edited, on note pad regarding Helen B. Schleman, addressed to “the first Schleman Scholars” ● Envelope labeled “Please give to Betty Nelson – Do Not Destroy – Historical” containing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Newspaper article, “Power, warmth, and the making of Purdue” ○ Summer 2001 issue of the Purdue University Perspective, article on pages 4-5 entitled “In Their Students’ Service” ○ Newspaper article, “Faculty recall activities of former dean” ○ Speech draft, “Beverley Stone – Profile” ○ Speech draft, heavily edited, “Conversation with four Women Deans” ○ Speech draft, NAWDAC Conference – Denver March 22, 1986 entitled “Panel presentation – The Deans of Purdue” by Barbara Cook ○ Scanned news article entitled “Marker honors Cook” from the Lafayette Leader, May 11, 1989 ○ List of RSVPs for the Barbara I. Cook Marker Dedication ○ Speech draft, “A Brief History of Student Services for Women at Purdue University” by Sister Debra A. Herrick ○ Speech notes, entitled “Special Legacy II: ‘She is One Tough Lady,’” annotated “Helen” in top left ○ Speech notes, entitled “Special legacy III: ‘Miss Stone, You’ll be Pianist for the Assemblies,’” annotated “Beverley” in top left ○ Speech notes, entitled “Special Legacy IV ‘Maybe I Should Sit Down and Write a Book Called Being a Dean of Students and Other Impossible Jobs’” annotated “Barbara” in top left
--	--	--

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Speech notes entitled, "Tribute to Helen B. Schleman" for the Helen B. Schleman Symposium dated October 15, 1980 ○ Speech draft entitled "Contemporary Woman and the Next 50 Years" for an Indiana University Workshop on 6/19/75, annotated "Barbara Cook" top center ○ Speech notes entitled, "Mwemorial – Helen B. Schleman" dated April 28, 1922 for the YWCA Annual Meeting ● Green box containing photo album labeled, "Our Wedding," with no further identification ● File folder containing multiple photographs of various sizes and printed on various mediums, mostly unlabeled. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ One sheet of photos labeled as "Barbara Wood" (a young Barbara Cook) ages 9-11
X	Photo prints	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Envelope containing 3 large photograph prints that do not fit in the legal-size box