

Clara Birch Snepp Vogt papers
20190726.1

Inventory

- Mortar Board Calendar Books, 1951-2, 1953-4
- Photographs
 - ID photo for job in CE Air Photo Lab, Summer, 1954
 - Photo from Costume Party at Alpha Tau Omega.
 - Engineering Graphics Faculty group photo, Fall, 1957.
- House Furnishing Assignment, "This is Peggy's Room," 1954.
- Grade Reports and Student IDs, 1952-54
- Grade Reports 1954-55, after her graduation. Clara took Engineering curriculum courses while teaching
- 7 Christmas Cards designed/sent by Prof. A.H. Carter from General Engineering faculty, professor then colleague of Clara's.
- Sympathy acknowledgment note from Martha Chaffee following Roger Chaffee's death. Roger assisted with GE 121 lab taught by Clara, fall, 1954.
- Note of appreciation and congratulations to Clara from J.H. Porsch, Chairman of the Department of Engineering Graphics, 5/8/1958.
- 1954 cover letter, employment contract and Constitutional oath, June, 1954, for Clara to join faculty as instructor of Engineering Drawing (3 documents)
- 1956 Salary increase letter from KB. Woods, head of School of Civil Engineering.
- 1957 salary increase letter from KB. Woods, in original Purdue brown envelope.
- February 28, 1953, Air Mail letter from Clara's father (Karl M. Snepp, Sr., CE '23), the first U.S. air mail service on this route (Chicago-Gary-LafayetteIndianapolis).
- Copy of Lafayette Journal & Courier article from 4/6/57 with headline article "Powder Puff Engineers" re: female engineers at Purdue. "Mrs. C.M. Vogt" is quoted often in the article.
- Indianapolis Star magazine article from Spring, 1955, regarding women, studying engineering at Purdue. Clara is pictured in the article, but not quoted.
- Clara's lecture notes as instructor for GE 122 & 122, 1954-58 (5 pages).
- Clara's notebook from "Elements of Architecture" class (GE 14), spring 1953.