

Preliminary Inventory

Ralph H. Schneck Military collection, addition 02

2025-043

Box 1

Items:

Flight Computers

- Black U.S. Army Air Forces True Air Speed Computer, Cruver MFG. Co. Chicago Ill. MFR's. Part No. 1220 Spec. No, 27387, Order No. 43-837-AF
- White Air Navigation Computer, Pilot's Dead Reconning Type E-11 in brown case. Circa 1957
- Computer Air Navigation True Airspeed, Mach. No. Wind Components, Supersonic Air Force Type MB-2A Part No. 205 with instructions and brown case.

3 Metal Signs from service in Vietnam

U.S. Army Air Force Watch, 1944

Folder 1: Programs, Brochures, and Publications from Ralph Schneck's time in Europe

- Follies Bergere (Follies Cocktail) Program; circa 1940s
- London At a Glance brochure (Text on cover says "Places of Amusement & Historical Interest; London Town Birds Eye View"), circa 1940s
- November Banquet for the Lead Crews of the Ninety-Third Bombardment Group (H); November 1944
- 93rd Bombardment Group (H) 329th Bombardment Squadron Calais Raiders' Stag Nite for Enlisted Men of the Engineering Section; January 1945
- Flying Cadets: Train in the United States Army for Aviation Careers brochure; circa 1940
- A Short History of Norwich, City of 1000 years by Thomas Wake. Jarrold & Sons LTD Norwich; circa 1940s

Folder 2:

- Ralph Schneck's Air Corp United States Army Identification Card issues June 1942
- Ralph Schneck's Pilot Flight Log; 1941-1944
- Ralph Schneck's Flight Journal; 1943-1945
- Typed interpretation of the flight log and journal prepared by Donald Schneck, 2024

Folder 3:

- Flight report, departing from Harwick station; September 1st 1944
- "Somewhere in England" poem; undated