Biography of Arthur and Roberta Craig Bitzer

Arthur G. Bitzer and Roberta Miriam (Craig) Bitzer were alumni of Purdue University. Arthur "Art" G. Bitzer, Jr. received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1942. Originally from River Forest, Illinois, he was a member of Phi Kappa Tau and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. Arthur was a WWII veteran who served in the U.S. Navy. He was the founder and former owner of Bitzer Products Co. of Broadview, Illinois.

Roberta Miriam Craig graduated from Purdue University in 1943 with her Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics. Originally from Chicago, Illinois, she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta (where she was called "Bobbie"), as well as the Activities Bureau, the Union, and the Virginia C. Meredith Club.

Arthur and Roberta were married in Chicago, Illinois, on February 6, 1943. Together they raised two children, Nancy (Bitzer) Sturgeon and John Craig Bitzer (BSME 1970). Arthur passed away in 2009, followed by Roberta in 2015.
