

GLENN M. SMITH MATERIALS

Farmers Bulletin No. 1679 - entitled "Popcorn" - U.S. Department of Agriculture

Circular No. 268 (March 1933) - entitled "Golden Cross Bantam Sweet Corn" - United States Department of Agriculture

Article from Country Gentleman (February 1945; pages 18, 24 and 25) - entitled "Something New in Popcorn!"

Advertisement for Morton Salt (not dated) found in Life Purdue University mentioned in the advertisement

Bulletin 510 (1947) - entitled "Hybrid Popcorn in Indiana" - Purdue University, Agricultural Experiment Station

Bulletin 563 (April 1951) - entitled "Hoosier Gold Sweet Corn" - Purdue University, Agricultural Experiment Station

Station Bulletin 578 (July 1952) - entitled "Golden Harvest Hybrid Sweet Corn" - Purdue University, Agricultural Experiment Station

Newspaper article from Journal and Courier (April 25, 1953) - entitled "Hoopers' Corn Shows Amazing Ear"

Newspaper article from Journal and Courier (February 18, 1954) - entitled "Will He Produce Another Miracle"

Newspaper article from Miami Herald (March 1954) - entitled "Sweet Corn Specialists Open Study"

Newspaper article from Belle Glade Herald (April 30, 1954) entitled "Keeping Track of Poppas and Mommas in Effort to Find a Strain of Sweet Corn Resistant to Leaf Blight"

Purdue Alumnus article (May 1954, page 4) - entitled "Foremost Breeder of Sweet Corn"

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "Sweet Corn Blight Discussed at Field Day Tuesday 1:30"

Map showing how to get to the Everglades Experiment Station Sweet Corn Helminthosporium leaf blight Nursery

Newspaper article from The Tallahassee Times (not dated) entitled "Vegetables Improve Their Own Lot The More They Preliminary Report"

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "Spring Corn Crop Going to Market"

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "Corn Problems To Be Studied By Men At Station"

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "'Grand Old Man' Of Hybrid Corn Honored By Seed Trade Publication"

Newspaper article from The Palm Beach Times (not dated) entitled "Golden Bantam Corn 'Father' Seeks New Breed"

Excerpts From Letters From Cannerys Regarding The Influence Of The Introduction of Golden Cross Bantam On The Canning Industry

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "Glenn Smith Takes Honors"

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "USDA Agronomist, U. of Illinois Farm Expert Eye Progress of Idaho Corn"

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "Purdue Research Earns Millions for Farmers"

Newspaper article (not dated) - entitled "Food for the World"

Newspaper article from Post Times (not dated) - entitled "Glenn Smith, Father Of Golden Bantam Cross Corn, Hot On Trail Of New Breed For State"

Newspaper article from Journal and Mining (not dated) entitled "Famed Plant Breeder On Home From Staff"

Page 2 of a Purdue News Service Release announcing a luncheon honoring Glenn M. Smith, the release also announces his retirement and gives a little background about his life and accomplishments (not dated) announcement of Glenn M. Smith's retirement (not dated)

Letter to Glenn Smith from J. Dennett Guthrie, Extension Specialist, United States Department of Agriculture (February 4, 1954)

Partial letter to John H. Miller, County Agriculture Agent from Glenn Smith (?) (February 19, 1954)

Letter to Glenn Smith from J. Dennett Guthrie, Extension Specialist, United States Department of Agriculture (March 2, 1954)

Letter to Glenn M. Smith from J. Dennett Guthrie, Extension Specialist and Laurenz Greene, Agriculturist (March 19, 1954)

Letter to Glenn M. Smith from Merle T. Jenkins, Principle Agronomist in Charge of Corn Investigations, United States Department of Agriculture (March 19, 1954)

34. Letter to H.L. Reif, Assistant Manager F.H. Woodruff & Sons from O.L. Mimms, Chief Agricultural Technical Assistance Division Office of Food and Agriculture, Foreign Operations Administration (March 22, 1954) cc: Glenn Smith
35. Letter to Glenn M. Smith from Arnold R. Beasley, Director, Personnel Division, United States Department of Agriculture (March 30, 1954)
36. Letter to Glenn M. Smith from Laurenz Greene, Agriculturist, Technical Assistance, United States Department of Agriculture (April 6, 1954)
37. Letter to Glenn M. Smith from Shin-Chi Chang, Specialist, Department of Agronomy, Tainan District Agricultural Improvement Station (November 22, 1958)
38. Convention Issue Release - Seed World Publication (April 20, 1959) G.L. Crookham, Jr., Crookham Company, Caldwell Idaho
39. Schedule for the 1959 Conference of the National Sweet Corn Breeders Association, LaSalle Hotel - Chicago, Illinois (December 3, 1959)
40. Death announcement and background information about Glenn M. Smith 1892-1960
41. Copy of a letter to Mrs. Sera Smith from A.D. Taylor, Assistant to the President, Crookham Company (April 13, 1960)
42. Letter the President of Purdue University from Mrs. Glenn M. Smith (April 25, 1993)
43. Letter to Helen Q. Schroyer, Special Collections Librarian from Mrs. Glenn M. Smith (September 22, 1993)

AWARDS

44. Certificate from the United States Department of Agriculture "In Recognition of the Completion of Thirty Years of Service in the Department of Agriculture (May 15, 1949)
45. Copy of the certificate from the Florida Seedsman's Association, Distinguished Service Award - Given for Outstanding Work in Breeding and Development of Hybrid Sweet Corn (May 20, 1957)
46. Copy of a photograph of Glenn M. Smith and Dr. A.M. Brunson receiving an award from Pete Olesen, Association President of the Popcorn Processors Association (not dated) - the award was a thermometerbarometer in recognition of outstanding work

AWARDS (CONTINUED)

47. All-American Selections Award of Honor Presented to Glenn Marsh Smith for Outstanding Achievement in Horticulture-1945 (8 1/2" x 11" wood plaque)

-Letter to Glenn M. Smith (February 29, 1945) about receiving the All-American Selections Award of Honor

- Letter to E.C. Elliott, President of Purdue University (June 21, 1945) about presenting the All-American Selections Award Of Honor

Aisle 347
STORAGE
(loose items)

Field Books - Ag. Experiment Station
(handwritten notes on crop growth, etc.)
ca. 1952-53